

If serving the public interest were merely a matter of profit, what need would there be for a regulatory agency such as the FCC? I depend on the FCC to protect my right to receive diverse information from a variety of sources. Please don't jeopardize this Constitutional guarantee any further. Retain the rules limiting ownership!